I am a plain-spok-en fel-low; No flow-er-y lan-guage is mine. A I'll not pre-tend you're the first one I've court-ed a las-sie or two. I've

p (In a lilting manner)

lit-tle un-couth, And to tell you the truth, Po-et-ry's not in my line.
trif-led a bit And quite frank-ly ad-mit I have kissed more than a few.

ten ten

Still, let me try with a song To tell you what hap-pened when you came a-long.
I may have fibbed in my youth But this time, be-lieve me, I'm tell-ing the truth.

CHORUS

I saw your smile as you passed me by, And I says to my self, says

I, says I, "There's the one-the on - ly one for me!" I caught a glimpse of a roug - ish eye, And I says to my - self, says I, says I,

"There's the one—the on - ly one for me." A po - et might speak of the blush in your cheek As the bloom of a rose new - ly - born;____ And your voice—the re-frain of the song of the rain In the light of a bright Ap-ril morn.____ I saw an An-gel from out the sky, And I says to my self, says I, says I, "There's the one—the on-ly one for me."
